LITTLE CAESARS LOVE KITCHEN TO SERVE FREE PIZZA TO THE IMPOVERISHED AND HOMELESS AT MARTHA'S VILLAGE AND KITCHEN

INDIO, CA – The Little Caesars Love Kitchen will be stopping by Martha's Village and Kitchen to provide fresh Little Caesars pizza meals for hundreds of people in need on Thursday, December 28, 2017 at 11:00 AM.

The Little Caesars Love Kitchen is a pizza kitchen on wheels. The Love Kitchen travels across the continental United States and Canada meeting the needs of the hungry, the homeless and disaster survivors. They work together with local Little Caesars stores to coordinate the staff and food on the day of service. Approximately 50,000 franchisees, their employees, and corporate colleagues have volunteered over the years to support the program in their local communities. The pizza is baked inside the vehicle and is served out of the window food-truck style.

The Little Caesars Love Kitchen has fed over three million people in 48 states. They have served over 6 million slices of pizza to over 3 million people! "We are so excited and grateful that we were chosen by The Little Caesars Love Kitchen for their visit to the Coachella Valley. They provide quality meals for the people who need them, and they love to give back. They have been here a couple of times now, and they make a big impact on our clients and the community members who rely on us for lunch," said President and CEO, Linda Barrack.
